Opera Atelier's 2016-2017 Season focuses on powerful heroic women — women who take their destinies into their own hands through acts of self-sacrifice and aggression that the Baroque world normally associates only with men.

Purcell's Dido and Charpentier's Medea represent the pinnacle of 17th century Baroque opera in all its glory. Join us for a season of heart-stopping singing, dancing and drama.

— Marshall Pynkoski and Jeannette Lajeunesse Zingg, Opera Atelier Co-Artistic Directors

"A company that started stretching boundaries and defying conventions in 1985 is now honoured worldwide, with recent productions in Salzburg and La Scala garnering rave reviews." — Globe and Mail, 2015
